

Module 02: Should Women Vote? The Politics of Suffrage

Evidence 14: "Unmasked" From Anti-Suffrage Review, September 1912

Introduction

In the cartoon below, the figure on the right is Britannia, the symbol of England. The headband on the figure in the middle reads "feminist."

Questions to Consider

- Why is the figure in the middle cutting the ribbon marked "Loyalty-Harmony"?
- What sequence of actions does the cartoon mean to illustrate?
- What perspective is being presented?

Document

Caption:
Unmasked.

Source:
"Unmasked," Anti-Suffrage Review (Sep 1912).