

Module 02: Should Women Vote? The Politics of Suffrage

Evidence 15: "No Room for Me!" From Anti-Suffrage Review, April 1912

Introduction

This cartoon depicts an imagined office for the women's suffrage campaigns.

Questions to Consider

- What book titles and tools are scattered around the room?
- What does the position and expression of the girl, in combination with the caption, indicate about the cartoon's perspective on the campaign tactics?

Document

Caption:

"No Room for Me!"

Source:

"No Room for Me!," Anti-Suffrage Review (Apr 1912).