

Module 04: The End of Optimism? The Great Depression in Europe

Evidence 17: "The Struggle Against Fascism" From Die Rote Fahne, November 5, 1931

Introduction

In the following cartoon, the sign reads, "The Struggle Against Fascism," and the policeman's speech bubble contains the mandate, "Demonstrating is prohibited."

Questions to Consider

- What does the image indicate about views of workers' demonstrations during the Depression?
- Why are the police prohibiting demonstrations?
- What is the significance of the struggle against fascism?
