

Module 06: "Which Side Are You On?" The Flint Sit-Down Strike, 1936-37

Evidence 16: A Striker Sleeping in a Makeshift Bed, January 1937

Introduction

Strikers slept in improvised beds made from the seats and the wadding used to stuff them.

Document

Source:

Library of Congress, LC-USF34- 040030-D, Farm Security Administration, Office of War Information Photograph Collection. Downloaded from the American Memory website, <http://memory.loc.gov/ammem/index.html>.