

Module 06: "Which Side Are You On?" The Flint Sit-Down Strike, 1936-37

Evidence 24: Herblock on the End of the Sit-Down Strike, February 1937

Introduction

In the cartoon below, Herblock captures the wide sense of relief experienced when the Flint sit-down strike was finally settled.

Question to Consider

- Why would "John Q. Public" be so happy to see the strike end?

Document

After Six Weeks of Sitting Down

Source:

Herbert Lawrence Block, "After Six Weeks of Sitting Down," 1937.

Copyright the Herb Block Foundation.