ARE THE YANKEES AGAINST NEGROES?
Is the front office of the World Baseball Champion New York Yankees guilty of racial prejudice? Do they really want a Negro on their team? Is the hard-hitting infielder-outfielder Vic Power with the Yankees' farm team (Kansas City Blues) given the run-around while less qualified players are brought up to the parent team? Milton Gross, veteran sports columnist who has traveled with the Yankees for several years will furnish the answers to these and other startling questions and issues.

Chicago is the team to watch in the American League and Minnie Minoso is the key. Why do the experts say "As Minoso goes so goes the White Sox?" Sports authority Wendell Smith will give the answer in a colorful story on Minnie.
